PUBLICATIONS OF THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY

RECENT PUBLICATIONS

In addition to announcements of meetings and various circulars sent to members from time to time, the Society issues a single serial publication entitled THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC MAGAZINE. During the first two years of the existence of the Society this serial was issued in quarterly numbers. With the beginning of the third year of the Society and the third volume of the Magazine the form of publication was changed, and the serial now appears at irregular intervals in parts or brochures (designated by pages and designed either for separate preservation or for gathering into volumes) which consist either of single numbers or of magazine brochures made up of articles, notes, abstracts and other geographic matter, together with the Proceedings and other administrative records of the Society.

The Magazine is mailed free to members of the Society and to exchanges. The complete volumes, as well as the separate brochures of the third, fourth and fifth, are sold at the prices given below, by the Secretary, Mr. Cyrus C. Baber, 1220 F street, Washington, D. C.

JOURNAL PUBLICATIONS.

In the interest of exact bibliography, the Society takes cognizance of all publications issued either wholly or partly under its auspices. Each author of a memoir published in The Xaverian or Scientific Messenger receives 25 copies, and is authorized to order any number of additional copies at a slight advance on the cost of press-work and paper; and these separate brochures are identical with those of the regular edition issued by the Society. Contributors to the magazine brochures are authorized to order any number of copies of their contributions at a slight advance on cost of press-work and paper, provided these separates bear the original pagination and a printed reference to the serial and volume from which they are extracted; but such separates are bibliographically distinct from the brochures issued by the Society. The Messenger is not copyrighted, and articles may be reprinted freely; and a record of reprints, so far as known, is kept.

The following separates from volumes V have been issued:

On July 27 and 28, in connection with the World's Fair, given of the centennial Conference of European and American geographers was held at the World's Fair Building, and at the request of the National Geographic Society arrangements were made for a display of a forest and an atmosphere quite beyond the expectations of an exhibition, and it is believed that it exceeded in interest the benefit derived from the study of geography in the United States.

Finance.—The Board of Managers received 122 applications for the transfer of all business of the Society to January 2, 1893, in change for the bylaws was adopted including the transfer for this year all the meetings of the Board of Managers.

January 2, 1893, an hour session was adopted in accordance with a resolution passed by the Board of Managers: "That in order to increase the study of all branches held at the last regular meeting in May, and for the coming year, for the benefit of students, persons, and lecturers, a special session be held with them in the following manner:

During the rapid growth of the Society, it has been at present a for a year to carry on the duties of Secretary. The Board of Managers found it necessary to employ a permanent secretary to resume office November 1, 1893.

Publications.—Six brochures have been published during the year, and during the last two months of volume 18 and the volume are a portion of volume 19.

The Society has on its exchange list about eighty foreign and domestic geographic societies and its library is increasing rapidly.

Special attention should be made of various gifts to the Society Library. Mr H. L. Hux of Wash., D.C., District of Columbia, is presented an old and valuable "Globe of the World," of date 1840. He would be kind enough to find how presented arranged at the Washington, D.C., of America, dated 1772, and three volumes of "Encyclopædia Britannica," dated 1772, and three volumes of "Encyclopædia Britannica," dated 1772, and three volumes of "Encyclopædia Britannica," dated 1772.

From the Imperial Geographic Society of Austria there have been received 20 volumes of the works of the Imperial Geographic Society.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

Presented to the Society December 27, 1894

To the President and Members of the National Temperance Society

We, a committee appointed at the meeting of the Society to audit the accounts of the Treasurer for the year ending January 3, 1894, beg to submit the following report:

The Treasurer's statement of the year was consisting of disbursements, and cash on hand at the end of the year, together with a statement of the receipts, and finally a statement of the balance.

We have also prepared a statement of the receipts, and for the year ending January 3, 1894, and for the year ending January 3, 1895.

We have also prepared the balance sheet, showing the amount of the assets and liabilities, and the amount of the cash on hand, and the amount of the cash in the bank.

The balance sheet for the year ending January 3, 1894, and for the year ending January 3, 1895, were submitted to us for report.

En matière d'indemnité et de dédommages, les juges du Tribunal de Commerce de Paris ont jugé que les assurances d'incendie et d'explosion, souscrites par les assurés, ne leur ont pas été utiles, et ont condamné les assureurs à leur verser une indemnité de 100.000 francs.

1. The foregoing findings show that the Respondent is not a "working" and collaborative, active agent, nor does he possess the necessary knowledge and experience to be a member of the Board of Directors.

The following is a list of the names of all the persons who have been elected to the office of Mayor of the City of New York since the year 1784.

The officers of the Society are: President, Dr. Albert J. Cook; Treasurer, Dr. Louis H. Brown; Secretary, Dr. George W. Brown.

Proposition 1.10.

Let X be a metric space.

Then, for any $x, y \in X$,

$d(x, y) = \inf_{z \in X} d(x, z) + d(z, y)$.

Proof. Let $d(x, y) = \delta$.

For any $z \in X$, $d(x, z) + d(z, y) \geq \delta$.

Let $z_0 \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_0) + d(z_0, y) = \delta$.

Then, $d(x, y) = d(x, z_0) + d(z_0, y)$.

Let $z_1 \in X$ be such that $d(x, z_1) = \delta/2$.

Then, $d(z_1, y) = \delta/2$.

Let $z_2 \in X$ be such that $d(x, z_2) = \delta/3$.

Then, $d(z_2, y) = 2\delta/3$.

Let $z_3 \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_3) = \delta/4$ and $d(z_3, y) = 3\delta/4$.

Let $z_4 \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_4) = \delta/5$ and $d(z_4, y) = 4\delta/5$.

Let $z_5 \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_5) = \delta/6$ and

$d(z_5, y) = 5\delta/6$.

Let $z_6 \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_6) = \delta/7$ and

$d(z_6, y) = 6\delta/7$.

Let $z_7 \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_7) = \delta/8$ and $d(z_7, y) = 7\delta/8$.

Let $z_8 \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_8) = \delta/9$ and $d(z_8, y) = 8\delta/9$.

Let $z_9 \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_9) = \delta/10$ and

$d(z_9, y) = 9\delta/10$.

Let $z_{10} \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_{10}) = \delta/11$ and $d(z_{10}, y) = 10\delta/11$.

Let $z_{11} \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_{11}) = \delta/12$ and

$d(z_{11}, y) = 11\delta/12$.

Let $z_{12} \in X$ be such that

$d(x, z_{12}) = \delta/13$ and

$d(z_{12}, y) = 12\delta/13$.

Let $z_{13} \in X$ be such that
